

NCC Parent & Alumni Meeting

February 18, 2009

Meeting was called to order by president, Lisa Bowman. Opening prayer was lead by Patty Fryer. (I apologize for the minutes, I had a very difficult time hearing due to the loudness of the cafeteria from the basketball game)

Minutes: A motion was made by Karen Enzweiler and Margie Schnelle to accept the January minutes.

Treasure's Report: $21,077 balance waiting on checks.

Principal's Report: Mr. Noll was present and reported the following:

- March for life was a success.
- Weather was a factor in Catholic Schools week.
- NCC received an award for special teaching.
- 86 + freshmen scheduled to start up next year hoping for 100 (Only have 76 in district)
- XLT program focus on vocations to be held.
- Sweetheart went well.
- Collection Nap Sack program - working with fire dept. in Bellevue and Dayton to provide snacks for 22 children who may not get a lot of food over the weekend.
- Yearbook went to print last week
- May add 2 days at end of year waiting to see what state says for snow days.
- 3/1 Religion aptitude test taken by juniors.
- Mass on Ash Wednesday in gym all welcome also may see new addition.

Old Business:

- Kroger Cards- still available
- Workers for Bank Of Kentucky- if interested see Peggy Picolla

New Business:

- Sign up for Mom Prom 3/23 and Pop Hop 3/24
- Opportunity for survey

- Jammin on the Hill- 3/28 4 diff groups playing $20/person see website for more info. Need volunteers to work. Requesting white Christmas lights for decorations. Set up will be Saturday morning.
- 3/23 Mom Prom - Senior boys bring moms to NCC for dinner and dancing.
- 3/24 Pop Hop - Senior girls bring dads to NCC for dinner and dancing.
- Usually have junior parents sign up and next meeting to help serve dinner, drinks, and clean up.
- Mr. Morgan asking for $200.00 for Mock Trial.

Next Meeting is Wednesday, March 18th. Motion to adjourn meeting was made by Phyllis Smith and Diane Nieves.

Respectfully submitted by:

Lisa Steffen