

TED BACIGALUPO ~ 1963

Ted Bacigalupo is a 1963 graduate of Newport Catholic High School. He is the son of Robert and Rosemary Bacigalupo and is the third of four children: Rosemary, Robert and Lou (NC 1971).

Ted played football under two coaches, Hulyn Bishop and Charlie Fredrick, where he was a three year starter as a receiver. He was selected as a tri-captain on the team and also received the Most Valuable Player award in his senior year.

Ted also played baseball under legendary coach Jim Connor. Like football, he was a three year starter on the baseball team as well. In 1963, to show his versatility and talents, he was recognized with All State Honorable Mention in both football and baseball.

Mr. Bacigalupo proceeded to graduate from Xavier University in 1968 with a Bachelor's degree in Education. He used his education to teach and coach at Cincinnati Moeller High School from 1968 until 1982. Ted has two children, Lisa and Amy, and owns Bach's Golf Ball Company.
